“ What a beautiful soul! This woman and her mother endeared themselves to a robust youth group at the First Church of the Nazarene in Columbus many years ago now. She was a doll, an excellent choir director and a loving piano teacher. She helped shape many of our lives when we were just 12 to 14 years old. We have always loved the Armstrong family and our hearts go out to all of them at the loss of this dear, dear woman.

“ I am so sorry to the Armstrong family. I have such fond memories when we lived in the same neighborhood, just carefree kids having fun. Beva was always so kind to me growing up. I remember how musically talented she was and had such a beautiful voice . I am sure she is singing in the heavens in the big choir now. Praying for comfort for the Armstrong family.
