“ Brian always a smile and made friends with every one me met. Here he is in a brand new car for Toyota. He,Keith Caldwell and I were walking around the Indian's outer area of the stadium before the game started. A salesman from Toyota took Brian's and led him to s sitting on the new car, snapped his picture and it was shared by the dealership on their page. I can remember Brian saying "Wow! This is nice, did I win it?" Always a jokester .
His favorite says we're "Turf it up buttercup" and when talking about his mom wanting to scold him (Brian said because he always found mischief as a kid)..Grandpa "Now boys will be boys".one time his Grandp a was suppose to teach him and a friend of his for some mischief they got caught in. Instead, Brian took the boys out in the field of the farm and let them off the scolding.
