“ Dad,
I have too many good memories to even begin to list them here. I just wanted to say that we know how lucky we were to have you as our Dad. You loved us unconditionally and taught us to be responsible adults.
This is so hard. We knew it was coming but we were never going to be ready to lose you. We know you're at peace now and that makes missing you easier.
We love you.

“ I have so many great memories. From the Christmas parties where Harvey made my first Tom Collins , then finding myself laying in the wet grass in the front yard cause I had to many, to Harvey being the first, and only, Santa my son would ever go to. He always made me feel welcomed and part of the family. I've always loved him as my surrogate dad. He will be missed. Thank goodness for all the pictures and videos.

“ Kind, caring, smart and always there to help. Harvey colored in coloring books with me when I was little. Took me to see Elvis impersonators, he shared movies and music when I got older, and was my ride to the hospital when I had my first daughter. He was the best! Harvey will always be in my heart.
