“ Gregg & Theresa,

It was with great sadness and sorrow that I learned of Terry's passing. My sadness is as if Terry were my own brother. You all have my thoughts and best wishes.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your brother. I have fond memories of Terry growing up together on Caldwell.

He was the “cool” teenage boy and I was the grade school kid who admired him.

When we were older, we attended Grace Lutheran Church. I can still see Terry waving his hand and saying “hi Pam”. He always put a smile on my face. He will be missed.

“ What a friendly guy! We always enjoyed seeing Terry, especially in his red IU jacket. The guy loved to smile and share a story about mutual friends. He brightened our days when we would see him. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.
